Preston Community Clubhouse

Attractive New Community Hall Will be Dedicated Saturday Night

This Saturday evening, February 24, is bringing to Preston an incident of more than ordinary importance in the history of that community.

At 8:00 o'clock that evening Preston people will hold the dedicatory services for their new Community Hall, a model structure sufficient for the social features of that community for some years to come.

Last week we gave the history of their Community Club and the incidents leading up to the sponsorship of this building, for which they will be given due credit in this celebration Saturday evening.

Following is the complete program:

1. Band Selection.....Issaquah High School Band
C. Blaine Ellefson, Director
2. Invocation.....Rev. J. S. Umberger
Pastor Issaquah Community Church
3. Greetings.....By the Club President
4. Instrumental Selections.....Charles Bakovich, Einar Johnson
5. Introduction of County and W. P. A. Officials
6. Address.....Commissioner Tom Smith
7. Vocal Selections.....Preston Ladies' Sextette
a—"Glow Worm"
b—"Where My Caravan Is Resting"
8. Address of the Evening.....Dr. Emil Friberg
9. Band Selection.....Issaquah High School Band
10. "God Bless America".....Sung by Audience
